

*Believing That You Have a Purpose Is Not Enough for Him.
Discerning Your Purpose Is Not Enough for Him. He Wants Much More.
He Will Be Satisfied with Nothing Less Than You Fulfilling It.*

Can God rely on you to become the woman He has called you to be? Are you a woman who will do whatever He tells you? Perhaps your response is “yes,” but you question “how.” How can I fulfill my reason for being? How shall I achieve my dreams? How do I utilize my gifts and talents? How Shall This Be? This is the question I asked many times before seeing God’s fruit birthed through me. It is the very same question Mary, the Mother of Jesus, asked before walking out her calling.

Each of the experiences Mary encountered is layered with guidance, motivation and evidence that give validity to the old adage, “Seeing is believing.” She is a forerunner of courage, faith and obedience. Journey with me through the story and seasons of Mary’s life, as well as a few of my own. As we go from revelation (the knowing) to realization (the doing) of our unique God-designed purposes, we too will birth the promises of God.

Move forward in your own purpose under God’s divine direction, because when His faithfulness meets your willingness, truly all things are possible! It’s your time to release the greatness that’s been growing inside of you. Others are depending on it.

It is not often I meet someone with such wisdom and energy to make a difference in the lives of other women. Stephanie’s insights coupled with her love for the Lord allow her the opportunity to fulfill her purpose in helping us glorify God in all we do. I counsel women daily who are lost, empty and searching for purpose. While the world defines success without spiritual components, Stephanie affirms that discerning and fulfilling our spiritual purpose is the only success that lasts. Mary’s multilayered example is a brilliant way to reveal this truth to women everywhere.
